Laird A. Lile presents on ethics in estate and trust administration during statewide audio webcast

NAPLES, Fla. (Dec. 2, 2014) – Laird A. Lile, a board-certified wills, trusts and estates attorney in Naples, presented on “Ethics in Estate and Trust Administration: The Obvious and the Oblivious,” during a recent statewide audio webcast presented by The Florida Bar Continuing Legal Education Committee and the Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section.

Lile offered a practical discussion of the ethical issues inherent in estate and trust administration, including issues raised by representation of joint fiduciaries, what to do when a personal representative crosses the line, the challenges of representing the fiduciary spouse, and identifying and avoiding conflicts. Nearly 100 participants earned CLE credit for participating in the audio webcast.

Lile recently was appointed by Gov. Rick Scott to the Second District Court of Appeal Judicial Nominating Commission and elected vice chair by his fellow commissioners. He was appointed in 2013 by the chief justice to a second three-year term on the Supreme Court’s Florida Courts Technology Commission, which is overseeing the technological overhaul of the state’s courts.

Lile is past chair of the Bar’s 9,000-member Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section. An elected member of the Board of Regents, past state chair and a fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, Lile has been included in Woodward/White’s The Best Lawyers in America for 20 consecutive years. He is recognized as one of Florida’s 100 Top Super Lawyers and was named to Florida Trend’s Legal Elite Hall of Fame in 2011.

Laird A. Lile, P.A., offers legal counsel on estate- and trust-related matters, including estate planning, estate and trust administration, probate-related litigation and tax matters.
