Laird A. Lile named to Florida Trend's Legal Elite

NAPLES, Fla. (June 24, 2015) – Laird A. Lile, a board-certified wills, trusts and estates attorney in Naples, has been named to the 2015 Florida Legal Elite by Florida Trend magazine. The honorees include attorneys in private practice, as well as those in top government and nonprofit organizations, who were named by their peers as those attorneys held in the highest regard.

Fewer than 2 percent of active Florida Bar members are recognized; Lile has now been included in the annual list nine times.

Lile also is part of an esteemed group of Legal Elite Hall of Fame members. Inducted in 2010 – his first year of eligibility – Lile was selected by a diverse panel of lawyers throughout Florida who evaluated the nominees and made final selections from those attorneys who had achieved Legal Elite status in the magazine at least five times.

An elected member of the Board of Governors for The Florida Bar, Lile was appointed in 2013 by the chief justice to a second three-year term on the Supreme Court's Florida Courts Technology Commission, which is overseeing the technological overhaul of the state's courts. He recently was appointed by Gov. Rick Scott to the Second District Court of Appeal Judicial Nominating Commission and elected vice chair by his fellow commissioners.

Lile is past chair of the Bar's 10,800-member Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section. An elected member of the Board of Regents, past state chair and a fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, Lile has been included in Woodward/White's The Best Lawyers in America for 20 consecutive years and has been named a Top 100 Florida Super Lawyer for five consecutive years.
