Laird A. Lile provides elective share update at Probate Team seminar

NAPLES, Fla. (Oct. 12, 2015) – Laird A. Lile, a board-certified wills, trusts and estates attorney in Naples, provided an update on elective share law at the Probate Team conference presented by the Florida Legal Education Association in Orlando Oct. 9.

Lile's presentation included a historical and current review of elective estate law, including probate estate, transfer on death accounts, rights of survivorship, revocable trusts, and elective share trusts, among other topics.

An elected member of the Board of Governors for The Florida Bar, Lile was appointed in 2013 by the chief justice to a second three-year term on the Supreme Court's Florida Courts Technology Commission, which is overseeing the technological overhaul of the state's courts. He recently was appointed by Gov. Rick Scott to the Second District Court of Appeal Judicial Nominating Commission and elected vice chair by his fellow commissioners.

Lile is past chair of the Bar's 10,800-member Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section. An elected member of the Board of Regents, past state chair and a fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, Lile has been included in Woodward/White's The Best Lawyers in America for 20 consecutive years and has been named a Top 100 Florida Super Lawyer for five consecutive years.

Laird A. Lile, P.A., offers legal counsel on estate- and trust-related matters, including estate planning, estate and trust administration, probate-related litigation and tax matters. The firm's office is located at 3033 Riviera Drive, Suite 104, in Naples. For more information, call 239-649-7778 or visit www.LairdALile.com.
