Laird A. Lile appointed to Strategic Planning Priority Subgroup of The Florida Bar

NAPLES, Fla. (Dec. 18, 2017) – Laird A. Lile, a board-certified wills, trusts and estates attorney in Naples, has been appointed to The Florida Bar’s Strategic Planning Priority Subgroup.

Members of the subgroup were selected by Bar President Michael Higer from among the 52-member Board of Governors. The subgroup is responsible for implementation of the 2017-18 Strategic Planning Priority adopted by The Florida Bar that addresses the Constitutional Revision Commission. The priority is to “Educate Florida Bar members and the public about the Constitutional Revision Commission through a comprehensive outreach effort and assist the CRC by providing subject matter expertise.”

Lile, now serving his sixth term as an elected member of the Board of Governors for The Florida Bar, was appointed by the Florida Supreme Court to its Judicial Management Council and to a third term on the Florida Courts Technology Commission. He is a member and immediate past chair of the Second District Court of Appeal Nominating Commission.

Lile is past chair of the Bar’s 10,800-member Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section. An elected member of the Board of Regents, past state chair and a Fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, Lile was inducted into Florida Trend’s Legal Elite Hall of Fame in 2010. He recently was named to Best Lawyers in America for the 23rd consecutive year and as a Top 100 Florida Super Lawyer for the seventh consecutive year.

Laird A. Lile, PLLC offers legal counsel on estate- and trust-related matters, including estate planning, estate and trust administration, probate-related litigation and tax matters. The firm’s office is located at 3033 Riviera Drive, Suite 104, in Naples. For more information, call 239-649-7778 or visit www.LairdALile.com.
