Laird A. Lile addresses Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section of The Florida Bar

NAPLES, Fla. (April 29, 2014) – Laird A. Lile, a wills, trusts and estates attorney in Naples, was a presenter during the Litigation and Trust Law Symposium for members of The Florida Bar’s Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section held in Tampa on April 25.

Lile’s presentation addressed unique issues faced by estate planners and was part of the symposium’s Continuing Legal Education program. Judges and attorneys from throughout the state attended the presentation both in person and via web access.

An elected member of the Board of Governors for The Florida Bar, Lile was appointed by the chief justice to a second three-year term on the Supreme Court’s Florida Courts Technology Commission, which is overseeing the technological overhaul of the state’s courts.

Lile is certified by The Florida Bar in wills, trusts and estates, and is past chair of the Bar’s 9,000-member Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section. An elected member of the Board of Regents, past state chair and a fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, Laird has been included in Woodward/White’s The Best Lawyers in America since 1995. He is recognized as one of Florida’s 100 Top Super Lawyers and was named to Florida Trend’s Legal Elite Hall of Fame in 2011.

Laird A. Lile, P.A., offers legal counsel on estate- and trust-related matters, including estate planning, estate and trust administration, probate-related litigation and tax matters. The firm’s office is located at 3033 Riviera Drive, Suite 104, in Naples. For more information, call 239-649-7778 or visit www.LairdALile.com.
