Laird A. Lile moderates technology discussion at Legislative and Case Law Update

NAPLES, Fla. (Aug. 4, 2017) – Laird A. Lile, a board-certified wills, trusts and estates attorney in Naples, moderated a presentation during the 37th annual Legislative and Case Law Update seminar for the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section of The Florida Bar titled, “Technology and Ethics for Resilient RPPTL in Florida: Yes, I Now Get It.”

The presentation’s acronym, “terrifying,” is a nod to the stringent rules and requirements for Florida lawyers in the technology world, including privacy of client documents, redacting of information in court filings, network security, and other significant considerations within the legal profession.

Panelists at the July 28 presentation included the Honorable Lisa Munyon of the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court of Florida and John Stewart, Esq., a partner at Rossway Swan who serves on The Florida Bar Board of Governors and the Florida Courts Technology Commission.

Lile, now serving his sixth term as an elected member of the Board of Governors for The Florida Bar, was appointed by the Florida Supreme Court to its Judicial Management Council and the Florida Courts Technology Commission. He is a member and immediate past chair of the Second District Court of Appeal Nominating Commission.

Lile is past chair of the Bar’s 10,800-member Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section. An elected member of the Board of Regents, past state chair and a Fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, Lile has been included in Woodward/White’s The Best Lawyers in America for 22 consecutive years and was inducted into Florida Trend’s Legal Elite Hall of Fame in 2010. He recently was named a Top 100 Florida Super Lawyer for the seventh consecutive year.
