

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Laird A. Lile named by Florida Supreme Court to third term on Florida Courts Technology Commission

NAPLES, Fla. (Oct. 16, 2017) – Laird A. Lile, a board-certified wills, trusts and estates attorney in Naples, was recently appointed by Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Jorge Labarga to a third term on the Florida Courts Technology Commission. Lile has served on the FCTC since 2010 and is one of only three practicing attorneys on the 25-member commission.

The Florida Courts Technology Commission was established as a permanent judicial branch commission to oversee, manage and direct the development and use of technology within the judicial branch under the direction of the Florida Supreme Court.

The commission's membership includes county and appellate court judges; court administrators and technology officers; clerks of court for several Florida counties and judicial districts; and practicing attorneys.

Lile, now serving his sixth term as an elected member of the Board of Governors for The Florida Bar, also was appointed by the Florida Supreme Court to its Judicial Management Council. He is a member and immediate past chair of the Second District Court of Appeal Nominating Commission.

Lile is past chair of 10,800-member Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section of The Florida Bar. An elected member of the Board of Regents, past state chair and a Fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, Lile was inducted into Florida Trend's Legal Elite Hall of Fame in 2010. He recently was named to Best Lawyers in America for the 23rd consecutive year and as a Top 100 Florida Super Lawyer for the seventh consecutive year.

Laird A. Lile, PLLC offers legal counsel on estate- and trust-related matters, including estate planning, estate and trust administration, probate-related litigation and tax matters. The firm's office is located at 3033 Riviera Drive, Suite 104, in Naples. For more information, call 239-649-7778 or visit www.LairdALile.com.
