

SWFL INSIDER

Lile accepted into Florida Fellows Institute

Langdon Lile, an associate at the law firm of Laird A. Lile, PLLC, has been accepted into Class VII of the Florida Fellows Institute of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel.

Langdon Lile

Lile earned his law degree from the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Florida, and bachelor's degree in government from the University of Virginia in Charlottesville, Virginia. Lile is currently pursuing his LLM in estate planning from the University of Miami School of Law.

The Florida Fellows Institute was created to develop future leaders in trust and estate law through in-depth educational presentations led by outstanding subject matter experts in each field from across the U.S. The institute includes six sessions for lawyers who were nominated by an ACTEC Fellow and selected through a competitive application process. The program begins in September 2025 and concludes in May 2026.

The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel is a national organization of lawyers elected to membership by demonstrating the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors.

For more information, visit floridafellowsinstitute.org